MOSCOW CLAIMS GERMAN DRIVE TOWARD UKRAINE HALTED

Berlin Fails to Release Details of "Baffling Successes"

EFFORTS OF NAZIS TO PIERCE RED DEFENSES STRONGLY REPULSED

Berlin, June 26.—(P)—DNE, The official German news agency, said today that authoritative sources in Budapest reported Russian planes had bombed Hungarian territory, causing heavy damage in two villages.

London, June 26.—(T)—The Moscow radio, in an official statement, charged Finland today with flagrant violation of her treaty with Soviet Russia under German dictate and declared the Red army and Red fleet would strike heavy blows against Finland to end such provocations.

Berlin, June 26.—(P)—Soviet Russian planes bombed Bucharest twice this morning, killing and wounding several civilians, DNE, official German news agency, reported from the Rumanian capital.

Berlin, June 26.—(T)—German troops, driving steadily into Soviet Russian territory, have taken town after town in the Baltic area, the official German news agency, DNE, said today.

By the Associated Press
The Red army was reported in Russian military dispatches today to be enveloping the thrusts of Germany's mechanized armies and if ultimately successful, the tactic will be the first checkmate ever found for the panzer infiltration.

By the Russian account, masses of Red troops, thrown into the breach after passage of German tanks in their drive toward Vilna, Lithuania, reformed the front, leaving the tanks to be disposed of in rearward actions.

The French tried it a little more than a year ago and it didn't work. Russian forces were reported holding tight in the Vilna sector and elsewhere along the 1,000-mile active battle front. Russian dispatches said that Przemyśl, on the border of German-occupied Poland, had been recaptured in a Russian counter-attack.

The announcement of Russian successes coincided with the broadcast of an official Russian statement charging Finland with flagrant violation at Germany's dictate of her treaty with the U. S. S. R. and threatened blows by land and sea to end the "provocations."

While Britain moved into closer cooperation with Russia against their common foe, reports circulated in London that Russia would be asked to subscribe to an inter-allied agreement against concluding a separate peace with the Reich before the end of the war.

BORDER TOWN RECAPTURED IN COUNTER-ATTACK

By the Associated Press
Moscow, June 26.—(P)—Masses of Soviet troops, thrown into the line after German panzer units had broken through in the drive on Vilna in Lithuania, reformed the front and checked the Nazi advance, Russian military dispatches declared today.

They reported Soviet troops holding tight also at other points along the 1,000-mile battle front and said Przemyśl, on the border of German-occupied Poland, was recaptured in a Russian counter-attack.

Sale of vodka, wine and other alcoholic drinks was prohibited in Moscow in a series of severe wartime rulings. Civilians were instructed to keep off the streets between midnight and 4 a. m. and theaters, restaurants and other public places must close at 10:45 P. m.

On the Lithuanian front, where the Nazis are attempting one of their main pushes, the advance was held by massing large numbers of new troops in the German path, Red Army leaders said. Reichswehr infantry failed completely in efforts to follow their tanks through temporary gaps cut by the panzer shock vehicles, they asserted. They did not disclose the fate of the tanks that had broken through other than to say they had been "cut off."

German efforts to pierce the Russian defenses in the Brody and Lwov sectors in the center of the battle front also "were encountering strong resistance on the part of counter-attacking Red Army troops, supported by the powerful blows of our air force," a communique said.

Further to the south, repeated German-Rumanian attempts to force the Prut river—boundary between Russia and Rumania for less than a year—were said to have been repulsed in the region around Cernăuți, capital of Bucovina, which is only 25 miles from the Ukraine.

RACING BILLS DEAD

Harrisburg, June 26.—(P)—Senator John M. Walker, (R-Allentown), chairman of the judiciary general committee, said today bills to legalize horse racing in Pennsylvania along with pari-mutuel betting are "dead" so far as his group is concerned.

CIRCUS EMPLOYEE KILLED
Wilkes-Barre, June 26.—(P)—Donald M. Stanton, 24, of Detroit, a laborer with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus, was killed today when he fell beneath the wheels of a trailer-truck as the circus departed after a performance here.

Finland Proclaims A Defense Battle Against Russians

Helsinki, Finland, June 26.—(P)—Soviet raiders kept up devastating raids on Finland today, inflicting death and destruction over a wide area of the country. Heaviest hit, apparently was the gulf of Bothnia port of Turku, in southwest Finland, which was raided 10 times last night alone. Many were killed and wounded there and damage was heavy.

(German reports said Turku had been bombed again today and part of the city set afire. It was bombed also on Monday.)

The Russian bombardments continued after Finland's declaration that she will resist with every means in her power and her report that 23 Soviet raiders had been shot down through yesterday.

The government, meanwhile, announced that President Risto Ryti would broadcast to the nation at 8:25 p. m. tonight (1:25 p. m., EST.).

(At London, a Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Stockholm today quoted DNE, the official German news agency, to the effect that President Risto Ryti of Finland is expected to broadcast to the nation today.)

BOMBARDMENT CONTINUES ON FRENCH BASES

London, June 26.—(T)—The Royal Air Force, continuing to take advantage of the return of the daylight skies over northern France, swept over the English Channel again today for another shattering raid.

Only a few hours after the RAF wound up the greatest 24-hour offensive it has yet attempted—a continuous assault in which 400 to 500 planes were said to have participated—the roar of aircraft could be heard along the south coast as planes raced across the channel to hammer Nazi-occupied territories again.

The sky was overcast and must shrouded the French coast but prolonged explosions could be heard in the distance and later the planes could be seen winging home. Yesterday's great raid culminated in another smashing air attack on western Germany.

Bremen and Kiel were the main objectives last night. A number of large fires were started in both places, the air ministry said, and docks at Boulogne on the Nazi-occupied French coast also were bombed.

The raids cost the British only one plane, a communique declared.

Six Irishmen Attend Their Own Inquest

Belfast, Northern Ireland, June 26.—(P)—Six grinning Irishmen attended their own inquest today. They were in a party of 12 thought to have been in a bombed house and the coroner was about to return a verdict of presumed death when the supposed casualties walked in. They explained they had left the house to go to a wake. The other six were killed.

POSSIBILITY OF REVISION OF STATE BUDGET

Governor James Indicates Willingness to Alter Estimates in Current Biennium, Sore Spot in Dispute With Democratic House

OTHER CAPITAL ITEMS

Harrisburg, June 26.—(P)—Governor James indicated today a willingness to revise his estimates of revenue to the state in the current biennium, sore point in dispute with the Democratic House majority which has held up final adjournment of the 1941 legislature. James conferred with Democratic and Republican leaders of the assembly on anticipated revenue and said that the conference "discussed" the possibility of increasing administration figures. The governor estimated $413,000,000 would be collected in the 1941-43 biennium. The Democratic House appropriations committee insisted the total should be $420,000,000.

This disagreement has prevented the sale of tax anticipation notes by the state because banking houses have demanded an authoritative figure on anticipated tax yield.

The governor said he "would not be surprised" if another conference would be called with legislative chieftains to further discuss the points of controversy concerning his $542,000,000 budget.

Neither James nor the other conferees would even intimate yesterday after their meeting broke up what had been decided concretely in the form of a compromise.

Senator Harry Shapiro (D-Phila.) indicated a belief that accord on primary points was near by predicting final adjournment of the legislature by next Thursday. To this statement James observed: "Nobody can answer that question more definitely than Mr. Shapiro."

While the budget conferences attracted most of the attention in the capitol, the legislature also produced these developments: (Turn to Page Thirteen)

PENNSYLVANIAN TO BE HONORED IN CAMP

Camp Croft, S. C., June 26.—(P)—Virtually the entire military personnel of this southeastern infantry replacement center—16,173 enlisted men and more than 530 officers—will pass in review Saturday in honor of a Pennsylvanian.

The dress parade was occasioned by the transfer of Colonel Louis A. Kunzig from the position of camp executive officer to duty with the Fourth Corps Area Service at Camp Blanding, Fla., effective July 15.

LOSS OF OCEAN RAIDER ADMITTED

Berlin, June 26.—(P)—The German High Command acknowledged today the loss of one of its surface raiders in an Indian Ocean battle with a British cruiser, but announced the return of the pocket battleship Admiral Scheer from a raiding cruise in the Atlantic which netted 152,000 tons of shipping.

The daily communique said that the auxiliary cruiser Pinguin, which had been active in foreign waters against enemy merchant shipping, was lost in the Indian Ocean in a fight against the much superior heavy British cruiser Cornwall.

"The commander and the majority of the crew were killed after a heroic fight," the communique said.

SHIPYARD STRIKE IS SETTLED

American Federation of Labor Machinists Announce End of 47-Day Walkout at Eleven San Francisco Bay Docks Permitting Resumption On Important Defense Orders Aggregating $500,000,000

NEW YORK SUBWAY IS FACING A SHUTDOWN

By the Associated Press
AFL machinists announced today the end of their 47-day strike at 11 San Francisco bay shipyards. Important defense orders aggregating $500,000,000 have been delayed by the walkout of 1,200 AFL machinists and of 600 affiliated with the CIO.

At a meeting in San Francisco last night, the AFL men voted to return to work Monday, negotiating their contracts later. Meanwhile, they were assured of protection under the terms of a master contract negotiated by the AFL Metal Trades Council with all 39 major Pacific coast shipyards.

The CIO strikers will meet tonight to reconsider their position. Wages were one of the big issues in the strike. The machinists had been getting $1 an hour and double time for overtime, struck for $1.15 and continuation of the double overtime. The master contract provides for $1.12 and time and one-half for extra hours.

Across the continent, a strike threat hung over New York City's municipally operated subway system, which carries more than 1,800,000 passengers annually.

With union contracts expiring June 29, Michael J. Quill, international president of the CIO Transport Workers Union, declared last night that union members would not work "one hour of the month of July without a signed contract."

The TWU wants a $1 a day blanket wage increase and a decrease in hours for 33,000 workers.

Efforts to avert a strike at the Sperry Gyroscope Company, Inc., in Brooklyn went forward with the management and an independent union, the Brotherhood of Scientific Instrument Workers of America, scheduled another conference. If an agreement is not reached, a union spokesman declared, a strike involving some 6,000 employees will be called for July 1.

The union's demands include a blanket 20 per cent increase in wages, which the union said now ranged from 45 cents to $1.30 an hour. The company has $3,000,000 in defense orders for bomb sights. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

THREE-YEAR-OLD LOST IN WOODS 28 HOURS SAFE

Altoona, June 26.—(P)—Three-year-old Betty Jean Bossler, found by a searching party after she had wandered about a mountainside for 28 hours, slept late in the comfort of a bed today and then thirstily sipped fruit juices as a preliminary to returning to her normal diet.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meryl Bossler, of Pittsburgh, said Betty had probably wandered aimlessly through the woodlands Tuesday night as the group of CCC workers who found her yesterday afternoon reported they had "passed over that very spot" the night before.

The place was about three-quarters of a mile from the summer cottage where the Bosslers were vacationing on Brush mountain. Sitting on a rock in a clump of bushes, the child spotted the searchers the same time as they saw her.

"Hey, there," she shouted. Later, as her parents embraced her amid tears of joy, she announced "I'm hungry."

But Dr. F. G. Holsinger prescribed only fruit juices for her today. He said Betty was only slightly affected by exposure and (Turn to Page Thirteen)

ST. PAUL SCENE OF IMPRESSIVE RELIGIOUS RITES

St. Paul, June 26.—(P)—An army of 80,000 to march in Christ's cause assembled here today for the last spectacle of a Eucharistic Congress, the traditional procession of the Blessed Sacrament at the climax to which scores of thousands will receive personally from a high representative of His Holiness Pope Pius XII the benediction of the sacrament.

HEAR POPE BROADCAST

A forecast of continued warm weather, which at yesterday's pontifical mass for 15,000 children resulted in heat exhaustion of hundreds, spurred authorities to make emergency precautions to handle crowds expected to number several hundred thousand along the two mile march of the procession.

The spectacle will end in the Eucharistic center, the Minnesota fair grounds, where church officials expected more than 150,000 people to gather in the last pilgrimage of the ninth national Eucharistic congress.

There, about 6:30 p. m. (EST), the papal legate to the congress, (Turn to Page Seven)

ZAM ZAM SURVIVORS REACH NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, June 26.—(P)—Carrying nine crew members of the torpedoed American merchant ship Robin Moor, the S. S. Delagatienio of the Mississippi Shipping Company entered the Mississippi river early today on its last voyage before being turned over to the maritime commission.

The $3,000,000 combination passenger and cargo vessel made a special trip to Recife, Brazil, to pick up the survivors of the Robin Moor, which was torpedoed in the south Atlantic May 21.

CIVIL WAR VETS END CONVENTION

Gettysburg, June 26.—(P)—Three aged civil war veterans prepared today to wind up the annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, after selecting Alfred W. Gabriel, 95, of Hazleton as state president.

The other two soldiers attending the encampment are former National Commander A. T. Anderson, 85, of Washington, Pa., and 97-year-old J. L. Chapman, of Scranton. Chapman was elected senior commander of the state organization, while Anderson was appointed assistant adjutant general by Gabriel.

Dennis F. Casterlain, of Philadelphia, unable to attend the reunion which possibly will be the last for the aging men, was elected (Turn to Page Seven)

Tire Prices Frozen At June 16 Levels

Washington, June 26.—(P)—Leon Henderson, price administrator, announced today that both wholesale and retail prices of automobile tires and tubes would be frozen at the levels prevailing June 16.

Henderson said that conferences with the tire industry would be held within the next few days to smooth out certain details of the proposed schedule, which is expected to be ordered next week.

An advance announcement of the pending move was decided upon, Henderson said, to advise the trade as to what to expect and to avert any price changes before the schedule is issued.

Presently the methods open to Henderson for enforcing his price orders are based on the selective service act, a World War transportation act, and the government's control over stores of strategic materials.

It was explained that the administration now could resort to compulsory orders and then compel a plant if it refused to comply; could withhold transportation serving a non-cooperative industry and thus deprive it of materials; release stores of strategic materials to keep prices down (Turn to Page Thirteen)

CIO WINS ELECTIONS IN BETHLEHEM PLANTS

Johnstown, June 26.—(P)—The National Labor Relations Board announced today that employees of four Bethlehem Steel Company plants chose the CIO Steel Workers Organizing Committee as bargaining representative in elections yesterday. The plants are at Rankin and Leetsdale, Pa., and two at Los Angeles, Calif.

Meanwhile, the staff of NLRB regional director Charles T. Doulos began tabulation at noon today of the 12,995 votes cast at the Johnstown plant. A total of 12,975 were eligible to vote here.

GOP SLATE FOR JUDGE SHIPS IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Harrisburg, June 26.—(P)—Incumbents Justice William M. Parker of the Supreme Court and Judge C. Arles E. Kenworthy of Superior Court are backed by the Republican state executive committee as organization candidates for full terms.

Their endorsement by the committee yesterday completed the slates of the two major parties for the only two statewide offices at stake in the September primary and November municipal election.

The Democratic state committee, at a meeting two weeks ago, "recommended" to voters of that party Judge W. Russell Carr, of Fayette county, for the Supreme Court and Judge Michael Musmanno, of Allegheny county, for the Superior Court.

Neither Justice Parker nor Judge Kenworthy has formally announced his candidacy for a full term. The vacancies were created by the death of Justice H. Edgar Barnes of the Supreme Court.

Democratic Governor James elected Parker from the Superior to the Supreme Court and appointed Kenworthy to the Superior Court vacancy. Both judicial posts pay $18,000 a year.

CRUSH OF VITAL LEGISLATION IS UP IN CONGRESS

Leaders Planning a Heavy Weekend Schedule in Effort to Send $15,000,000,000 in New Appropriations and Other Measures to White House

YEAR ENDS MONDAY

Washington, June 26.—(P)—Members of congress faced a crush of vital legislation today and lead-off schedule of work in an effort to send $15,000,000,000 in new appropriations and other key measures to the White House before the fiscal year ends at midnight Monday.

Both chambers were expected to hold unusual Saturday sessions, and some night work also was in prospect. Despite its long list of unfinished business, the senate was expected to do no work today.

Many members have not yet returned from Gulfport, Miss., where they attended funeral services for the late Senator Pat Harrison.

At the top of the leadership's "hurry-up" list with the big appropriations bills were an administration-sponsored measure to continue President Roosevelt's emergency powers (Turn to Page Seven)

BROADCAST FROM THE VATICAN NEXT SUNDAY

Vatican City, June 26.—(P)—Pope Pius XII will deliver a radio broadcast Sunday in which he is expected to deal with the situation arising from the war against Soviet Russia.

The Vatican thus far has maintained strict neutrality in the war, but unofficial Vatican sources had predicted that the Pope would speak on the entrance of Soviet troops into the conflict since the Vatican always has been hostile toward Communism for its atheistic manifestations.

The message, which coincides with the Feasts of Sts. Peter and Paul, will be delivered at 8:30 a. m. (EST) on wavelengths of 31.06 and 19.84 meters.

Compulsory Price Fixing is Seen As Result of Chrysler's Decision

Washington, June 26.—(P)—Prompt and sweeping government action to fix mandatory price levels appeared imminent today, hastened by two refusals of industry to curb price increases.

Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced yesterday that Chrysler Corporation had refused to rescind recent price increases on its new models. Last night, general New York furniture manufacturers announced price boosts of about five per cent despite the administrator's request that such increases first be submitted to his office.

Meanwhile, Henderson said, Chrysler's failure to comply, he said, "is forcing us to take the pricing of automobiles out of the hands of the industry." At the "proper time," he continued, he would report the full facts to President Roosevelt and to congress.

The furniture increase topped previous 5 to 10 per cent price increases applicable to the opening of new lines in New York last Monday. On the same day, Henderson wrote 47 furniture manufacturers that "if such price in-

REPORT ON INVASION IS BRIEF

Communique Issued from "The Fuehrer's Headquarters" Adheres to the High Command's Policy of Reserve on Developing Military Operations and Devotes Only Two Brief Sentences Which Provide No Definite Information

STOUT RESISTANCE AT SOME POINTS ADMITTED

Berlin, June 26.—(P)—German troops have smashed through Soviet Russia's border defenses in numerous battles and now "successes of great dimensions are beginning to show themselves," the German High Command declared today.

The communique, issued again from "the Fuehrer's headquarters," adheres to the High Command's policy of reserve on developing military operations and devoted only two brief sentences which gave no details about the eastern front.

Informed Nazi sources earlier had said that after four days of fierce fighting the whole "Red Front" had been shattered and the Soviet Russian army proved no match for Germany's armed forces.

"There had been predictions in Berlin, apparently on high authority, that details of successes which would 'baffle the imagination' would be released today and it had been indicated they would appear in the communique. Today's bulletin, incidentally, was about two hours later than usual."

(The Italian radio hinted today that the sensational war report advertised by Berlin may not be issued for a while. Its broadcast, heard in New York by CBS, said "the much eagerly awaited news from the Russian front is still lacking...the world must therefore wait a little longer.")

(It explained that military operations were on a scope unprecedented in history and spread over such wide areas it was impossible to give exact information on developments.)

This was the High Command's whole report on the campaign (Turn to Page Seven)

Service Abroad May Get U. S. Sanction

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, June 26.—(P)—The United States probably will give formal, full-fledged approval within a few days to the enlistment of American men in the British or Chinese war effort, either for actual combat or for non-combatant technical work behind the lines.

The enlistments would be sanctioned officially as service in the interest of national safety.

Informed persons predicted this development would come with issuance by Selective Service headquarters here of a memorandum to state directors formally directing that deferment be given to registrants who wish to volunteer for duty abroad.

Meanwhile, Henderson said, plans would be pressed "immediately to establish a complete over-all price ceiling for new automobile models," extending not only to manufacturers' prices and dealers' mark-up, but also to trade-in values.

WPA WORK HERE TO BE AFFECTED BY NEW ORDERS

W. P. A. work in this community will be affected by the recent announcement of Lieutenant Colonel Philip Mathews, state administrator of the W. P. A., that the Pennsylvania quota has been cut to 68,000. This is a reduction of 25,000 for the state. A year ago, the quota was 160,000.

Guy C. Cleaver, manager of the Franklin office of the W. P. A., announces that it will be necessary to reduce the number employed in the seventeen counties, comprising the northwestern district of the state, by 2,000 persons. There will be 2,600 men laid off on the construction projects and 600 persons on sewing and white collar work. Practically all projects in this community will be hit by the layoff. In many cases it will be necessary to suspend projects.

The Franklin office is attempting to rearrange their schedules, so that all work under way may be completed. They believe that this can be accomplished by suspending some projects and concentrating on others until useful units can be finished and then reopening suspended work.

Mr. Cleaver hopes to complete all work started, although some projects will be delayed on account of the reduction in the number of employees.

Anthony Regina, of 103 Falconer street, was treated at the Warren General Hospital yesterday after- noon for a fracture of the right leg, sustained Monday when he caught his limb between two cars while working at the Struthers- Wells plant.

IS AT BUCKNELL
Rev. J. A. Davidson, pastor of the First Baptist church, is ex- pected home this evening or tomor- row from Bucknell University, where he has been one of the speakers for a week's conference of Baptist ministers of Pennsylv- ania.

SWEDETOWN PICNIC
The annual Swedetown picnic will be held at Island Park at Youngsville on Sunday, June 29. It is announced by the committee, who would like all residents, past and present, to be in attendance. Those in charge will provide cof- fee, cream and sugar for the one o'clock picnic dinner.

MARRIAGE LAW
According to an Associated Press dispatch today from Har- burg, common law marriages in Pennsylvania have been outlawed by a bill adopted by a conference committee in the legislature and after its acceptance in both House and Senate it was sent to the gov- ernor for his signature.

MEETING POSTPONED
A meeting of draft board offi- cials of this area, which was to have been held at the court house, here this afternoon, was postponed late yesterday when it was learned that the representative of the state Selective Service headquar- ters who was scheduled to be here could not attend. The boards are expected to meet at a later date to be announced.

WRONG SHOW

Wilkes-Barre, June 25.—(P)— Wilkes-Barre baseball officials saw signs of a good night as a man stepped up to the box office and purchased eight tickets. Inside the park the party wanted to know when the circus started. Refunding the money, officials directed them across the street to the circus lot.

There are about 1,500 kinds of birds in North America, north of Mexico.

TABLES TURN

State College, June 26.—(P)—
The Pennsylvania State College extension service, helping to of-set a dearth of skilled industrial workers by training more than 15,000 men, is beginning to face a shortage itself.

The college has been unable to find enough skilled stenographers to handle clerical details of the training program.

WPA WORK HERE TO BE AFFECTED BY NEW ORDERS

W. P. A. work in this community will be affected by the recent announcement of Lieutenant Colonel Philip Mathews, state administrator of the W. P. A., that the Pennsylvania quota has been cut to 68,000. This is a reduction of 25,000 for the state. A year ago, the quota was 160,000.

Guy C. Cleaver, manager of the Franklin office of the W. P. A., announces that it will be necessary to reduce the number employed in the seventeen counties, comprising the northwestern district of the state, by 3,200 persons. There will be 2,600 men laid off on the construction projects and 600 persons on sewing and white collar work.
Practically all projects in this community will be hit by the layoff. In many cases it will be necessary to suspend projects.

The Franklin office is attempting to rearrange their schedules, so that all work under way may be completed. They believe that this can be accomplished by suspending some projects and concentrating on others until useful units can be finished and then reopening suspended work.

Mr. Cleaver hopes to complete all work started, although some projects will be delayed on account of the reduction in the number of employees.

"THE SEA WOLF"

The Columbia's new picture, opening today, Thursday and Friday, will be "The Sea Wolf" with Edward G. Robinson, Ida Lupino and John Garfield in the starring roles. The film is based on the world-famous novel by Jack London, which has been a best-seller ever since its publication in the early 1900's, and is an action-filled tale of life aboard the hell-ship
"Ghost," captained by the dreaded Wolf Larsen. Michael Curtiz directed the production from Rob-

REGISTRARS TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR REPORTING

Registrars who sit July 1 to register approximately 65,000 Pennsylvanians for Service. Service will be charged with the responsibility of reporting whether they believe all of the registrants' answers are truthful. Dr. William Mather Lewis, state director, said today.

Regulations dealing with this phase of the registration provide: "After the registration card is signed, the registrar shall note, in the space provided thereon on the back thereof, the registrant's answers which he believes to be incorrect or false, if any. If he does not believe any of the registrant's statements to be incorrect or false, he shall write the words 'none to my knowledge' in such space. It is the sworn duty of the registrar to report on the registration card any statements of the registrant he believes to be incorrect or false."

All residents of Pennsylvania—whether they are citizens or not—who have become 21 years of age since the first registration day, October 16, 1940, are required to register on July 1. The registration will be conducted by the 422 local boards in their offices, which will be open for registration between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m., eastern standard time.

Accident Prevention Program For Bell Telephone Company Discussed

Honored By Bell

The general accident prevention program of the Bell Telephone Company was discussed last evening, at a dinner and safety rally for telephone workers, held in the company's building at 1 Market street.

A feature of the rally was the enrollment of Don C. Andrew, a commercial representative, of 209 West street, in the company's 100,000 Mile Club. Special awards were given to a group of 100,000 Miles who had added another year to their long-safe-driving records. Club membership is restricted to employees who have driven company vehicles safely for at least ten years. Throughout the state 750 Bell drivers have qualified. Members of the club who were present at the Warren rally have covered more than 1,000,000 miles without being responsible for an accident.

NO CHARM IN THIRD TRY
Philadelphia, June 26.—(P)—Hubert Potter Earle didn't get any farther on his third try to get into Uncle Sam's armed forces than he did on two previous attempts. The 22-year-old son of former Governor George H. Earle was rejected yesterday for army service due to imperfect vision—the same reason he couldn't get in the navy or the navy supply division.

WARREN COUNTY BANKS LEAD

The banks of Warren and Warren County together with other banks in Northwestern Pennsylvania are alert to the trends of bank public relations, as studied by the American Bankers Association. In fact, they are several steps ahead of most small groups of the so-called "county banks," and they have evidenced their leadership in the banks of Pennsylvania.

Seventy-nine banks in this immediate area of Northwestern Pennsylvania have announced the results of a survey of public opinion recently completed. The banks are members of Group 7, Pennsylvania Bankers Association and are located in 48 cities and towns in nine counties. The counties are Cameron, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, McKean, Mercer, Venango, and Warren.

More than 1,000 interviews with people in different occupational and income groups were recorded. One-fifth of the interviews were with women, equally divided between housewives and wage-earners.

According to the information gathered, several conclusions were reached, for example, the following:

Sentiment in Northwestern Pennsylvania is preponderantly in favor of the independent, locally owned bank. This type of banking organization received three times as many preference votes (76.4% of the total) as all other types and systems combined.

More people would use bank financing for the purchase or construction of a home than would use all other methods combined. It is an interesting fact that not a single person who favored FHA financing was aware that the local independent bank actually furnished the money for FHA mortgages. The Federal Housing Administration merely passes on plans, oversees construction and guarantees to the bank the payment of the principal sum.

There is a growing trend toward financing installment purchases by bank loans.

That there were 42 separate governmental agencies competing with banks for loans came as a surprise, and a majority of the people interviewed were inclined to say that this is too many.

Northwestern Pennsylvania is uniformly appreciative of checking accounts, and a majority of the people believe that service charges on checking accounts are necessary, and that the rates in general are fair.

The survey is one of a very few that have been made directly by banks. Its purpose, a spokesman for Group 7 stated, is to bring about better banking service through a more complete understanding of the public's needs, wishes, and ideas.

The survey was under the direction of Charles J. Miller, chairman of Group 7's publicity committee and cashier of the First National Bank of Meadville. Other bankers participating in the work were William J. Flynn, president of the Bank of Erie; H. B. McDowell, president of the McDowell National Bank of Sharon; Robert W. Mackay, cashier of the Warren National Bank, who was chairman of Group 7 in 1937; Earl B. Shaw, vice president of the First National Bank of Erie; and John Harper, secretary-treasurer of the Exchange Bank and Trust Company, Franklin. Another Warren banker, Holger N. Elmquist, cashier of the Warren Bank & Trust Company, is vice chairman of Group 7 during the current year.

Selectees who are scheduled to leave for induction next Wednesday are reminded that they are cordially invited to attend the dinner in their honor Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, at the American Legion Home.

Young men who have reached their 21st birthday since last October should watch the Times-Mirror for information as to how the registration will be conducted in the county next Tuesday.

The Warren airport, busier than any season of its existence, will see considerable added activity with the announcement that fourteen youths are to receive free flight training.

Securing autographs has become a popular pastime in the county.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—On paper, the American Concert Association seems just like any other musical organization, except for this fact—back of it stands a thoughtful young man who has found how to make cultural entertainment pay.

He is Reed Lawton, baritone, who is turning to account his experiences and observations in Italy, in France, in Germany, and in those other continental centers where so many Americans for generations have gone to study opera.

The study of opera and travel is expensive. It is prohibitive when a world is at war. It shuts doors even to those who have the means for leisurely study.

Lawton's idea was to open new doors—not to ancient European halls but to new yet eager American audiences—and it works like this:

1. In forming the American Concert Association he gathered to himself a wide range of notable talent—the Westminister choir, for instance; the duo pianists Fray and Braggiotti. . . . He got John Tyers, the baritone; he secured the services of the Edwin Strawnbridge ballet, and Henrietta Schumann, pianist. . . . He secured many others.

2. Next, he went into the towns of the East, the South, and the Midwest. He set up organizations in each of those towns, sponsored by civic authorities and the leading citizens, the bankers and the ministers.

3. These organizations each arranged a series of three concerts. The concerts were $1 each. The tickets were sold in blocks of three.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1921

After negotiations which have been pending for several weeks the trustees of the First Presbyterian church have purchased from Mrs. Effie Noyes her residence on Market street, which is one of the most desirable properties on the street. It will be used as a manse for the Rev. Raymon Kistler and family.

The president of the City Baseball League announced today that Henry Hunzinger and Dennis Cochran have been secured to act with the president as a commission to decide questions that will come up concerning the league games.

The War Department in sending out to newspapers names of alleged draft evaders has had them printed on yellow paper. Probably decided upon intentionally to further embarrass the "dodgers". Thus far no names for this county have been received.

Mrs. Flora Schaefer Evans, author of the play "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs", which will be given Wednesday and Thursday evenings in Mrs. Rose Mesner's garden by the Girl Reserves, is in Warren in the interests of the play.

Ned Lauffer copped first place once more in the shoot held at Bunker Hill Saturday under the auspices of the "Y". His score was 69 out of a possible 75. L. Clark made 61 and Peterson was third with 54.

In 1931

A four-way tie for second place in the Sunset Baseball League was created last evening when the State-Bankers won over the Mobilgas nine, 2-0. The teams now stand in this order: Pavanias Yes Gas, Barrettes, Mobilgas, State-Bankers, Texas Lunch and National Transit.

There are at present 16 men serving time or awaiting trial in the county jail for crimes ranging from plain drunk to suspected murder, an unusual number for this time of year.

The first week of the Girl Reserve Camp was ended yesterday morning at which time the camp honor emblem was presented to Jeanne Lesser, Gretchen Knabb, Florence Armstrong, Jean Newmaker, Vera Johnson and Margaret McCutchen.

Mrs. Mabel Dallas, Sugar Grove, recently elected president of the Warren County Council of P. T. A., is at Conneaut Lake today attending the district meeting of the organization.

STAMP NEWS

FIRST-DAY sale of the new United States series of airmail stamps will be June 25, the Post-office Department has announced. The stamp above is the six-cent denomination of this series. Sale of all the stamps in the series will be opened in the post office at Washington, D. C.

The recent "Winter Help" series, in nine values, has been released in Belgium as a miniature sheet. Printing will be limited to 20,000 sheets.

Sale of unused stamps and stamped paper amounted to $82,030 in April as compared to $145,620 in March, the Philatelic Agency of the U. S. Postoffice Department announced.

Current Costa Rica airmail stamps have been over-printed with the words, "Costa Rica-Panama Boundary Adjustment—May 29, 1941." The stamps were released to commemorate the end of the long-standing boundary dispute with Panama.

OLD ETIQUETTE HINT

"Art of Good Behavior," published in 1850, gives the following etiquette hint: "If possible, the knife should not be put in the mouth, but if it is done, let the edge be turned outward."

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Answering the mail orders—entirely military:

—Miss C. L. Okemah, Okla.—There are a few more than 5,000 nurses in the army now, but according to the medical corps here, there will be more than 8,000 by the first of next year. If you can come up to army requirements, don't worry for a minute about getting a job. Nurses are almost No. 1 on the army's list of hoped-for recruits.

Pvt. K. M. Camp Robinson, Ark.—The army is preparing to take care of cases similar to that you outline. Special battalions will be formed, composed of men who fall behind because of need of special medical, educational, or psychological treatment. There should be no disgrace whatever attached to belonging to these battalions. Some of the best soldiers and even topnotch officers have developed from men who were maladjusted to regular army routine. The army discovered in 1918 that by treatment of this kind it could salvage thousands of good soldiers who might otherwise have been discharged for lack of ability to keep up the training pace.

J. T. "Somewhere in Tennessee"—I sympathize and so does the army with the fact that your store stock was "plumb cleaned out" when the soldiers hit your "hump in the hills." Maybe a year from now, all major units on maneuvers will carry their own mobile commissary departments. These truck-and-trailer five-and-dimes will carry about 60 necessities (razor blades, toothpastes, chewing gum, and such). It shouldn't be enough to keep the local stores on maneuver routes from doing a business, but it should prevent "wrecking local sales" by stripping a storekeeper of his stock. The quartermaster corps, however, is just experimenting with such markets on wheels.

Mrs. D. O. N. Brownwood, Tex.—Mail properly addressed to the "Army Post Office" in any of the new Atlantic bases takes only the domestic rate. If it is improperly addressed—that is without the APO number, it probably will move on the international rate. Undoubtedly that is what happened in your case. From Newfoundland to the Bahamas, the army now has numbered army postoffices with the numbers ranging from 801 to 808 in the following order: Newfoundland, APO No. 801; Bermuda, 802; Trinidad, 803; Jamaica, 804; Saint Lucia, 805; Antigua, 806; British Guiana, 807; and the Bahamas, 808.

W. J. Springfield, Ill.—The new army pilot training program calls for 30,000 pilots a year. There are now about 50 preliminary training centers, but this number is being stepped up almost weekly.

S. H. Manchester, Tenn.—You are right, but it happened too recently for inclusion in the paragraph you mention. Enlisted men without more than high school education can now become pilots in the air force. If their applications are accepted and they complete their training courses satisfactorily, they will become flying non-coms. The authorization came through Congress.

Mrs. N. R. C. Stamford, Conn.—There is no federal law to outlaw the sale of intoxicating liquors within a certain distance of military reservations. Two such bills have been introduced in Congress, one in each house. The one in the Senate was authored by the late Sen. Morris Sheppard of Texas, who was known as the father of prohibition. Neither has been considered.

Sgt. C. McL. Camp Benning, Ga.—I can't say anything official out of the army here, but I'll be glad to pass along YOUR complaint (which is): "Friends, relatives and vacationists—stay out of the maneuver areas this summer—but if you just have to go that way, find out from the garage, motor club or the guy who has been through it how to avoid sticking out your own neck and endangering those of soldiers in training."

President of Warren General Hospital Board Gives Report

Following is the report of J. H. Alexander, president of the board of directors of the Warren General Hospital, which was presented at the annual meeting this week:

A complete review of the service life and business administration of Warren General Hospital during the past fiscal year ending May 31, 1941, is not contemplated in this report of your President, but a brief survey cannot fail to mark this year as one of considerable importance in the hospital calendar.

In the fall of 1940 a county wide financial campaign was successfully conducted, resulting in total pledges of $52,025.52. It will be recalled that on May 31, 1940, there was an outstanding indebtedness, resulting from net operating loss of approximately $14,000.00, and as a result of the campaign this liability has been met and retired, and our current bills are being met and paid with reasonable promptness. With a balance of unpaid campaign pledges and through economy in hospital operation, the financial future of our hospital presents an encouraging and a much brighter picture than it has for many years. The campaign also made clear the necessity of an earnest endeavor to place our administration on a more businesslike basis to the end that annual operating deficits be eliminated so far as possible. The executive committee aided by the advice and counsel of other members of the board, recommended as the first step on the road to economy the abandonment of the Nurses Training School, with the necessary substitution of graduate nurses plus some additional maid service in lieu of the student nurses' staff. The abandonment of the Training School has now been practically completed and has been done with comparatively little disruption in hospital routine and with general satisfaction to the student body through their board with more active participation in the work and a better understanding of hospital affairs by the individual directors. I, therefore, recommend to the members of Warren General Hospital, for their consideration, a reduction in the number of directors constituting the board, which at present consists of 21 members. The work required of the various committees of the board is comparatively light, with the committee chairman doing the most of it. With the elimination of our Training School, all duties of this committee are removed. It would seem much better to have a comparatively small

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. What happens if I suddenly need the money I put into a Defense Savings Bond?
A. You can cash your bond at any time after 60 days for the full amount plus any interest due.

Q. Do many bond owners cash bonds?
A. No. People want to help America against all attacks. In any case, people are putting bonds in cash into Defense Bonds and Stamps. Some are doing this by asking employers or banks to withhold part of their salaries in order to buy these bonds and stamps for them.

Note—To purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank or write for information to the Treasurer.

Corry Pianist in Junior Recital At Local Conservatory

Dorothy Johnson, of Corry, was heard in a pleasing piano recital at the Warren Conservatory of Music Tuesday evening. Her accompanying artist, Miss Ruth Sattelmund, local vocalist.

Her opening selections, the Bach "Allegro" and MacDowell's "Rigodon" were musically played and very clear with splendid rhythmic precision. This was again evidenced in her second group and a fine repose was achieved. A few wrong notes detracted, but slightly and there was a pleasing response to the "Idyll" of MacDowell, "Forest Sounds" and "Sprites of the Glen" by Dennee.

For her third and final group, Miss Johnson chose "A Miniature" and "Nightmare" by Hueiter and MacDowell's "Hungarian". The audience was aware that she made each tone speak with musical meaning and provided a rich accompaniment. Her Chinese were splendidly played.

Miss Sattelmund's voice is developed into a beautiful contralto, a controlled and very expressive. Much progress was shown in her two groups. "The Song of the Night" by Secchi and "The Song of the Night" by Secchi and "The Song of the Night" by Secchi.

Virginia Mercer, of Hartford, Conn., who comes to the Philomel Club for a voice recital next Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock, has been highly praised by writers and audiences in eastern cities.

One of the most pleasing reviews accorded her work appeared in the Hartford Courant and friends here will be interested in the following excerpts from a lengthy article:

"In what was probably the best song recital so far this season, Virginia Mercer appeared in the Colonial Room of the Bucknell Memorial under the auspices of the Hart School Tuesday night.

Virginia Mercer

"To begin with, Mrs. Mercer has a voice splendidly lyric in quality—clear, flexible and vibrant—and true enough in tone to follow even the most melodic outline of such songs as the DeFalla group with fine and sensitive exactness. More than that, Mrs. Mercer knows how to use her talent, filling her songs with admirable shading and warmth of coloring. Whether forte or piano, the tones were thoroughly sustained, and equally in voice along both upper and lower registers.

"Even in her most rapid songs, her diction and enunciation were admirably clear and precise, making her one of the few singers who could be followed with aid of program libretti.

"What lifted Mrs. Mercer's recital above the rest, however, was not her voice alone, but her flair for getting into the spirit of the thing—a sense of the dramatic consistently implied, often fully expressed throughout."

Friends who anticipate hearing the Monday night recital are urged to secure their tickets at once, since seating capacity is limited and no more than that number will be sold.

It is understood that a sizeable delegation will be present from Ridgway, Mrs. Mercer's home in earlier years.

Betty Foster Gives Senior Recital For Appreciative Group

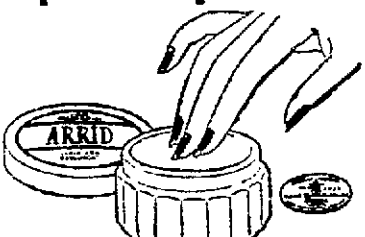

Another in the series of special year-ending recitals at the Warren Conservatory of Music was given Wednesday evening when Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell presented Miss Betty Foster in her senior recital of piano works.

She was assisted by Miss Jean Foster, her sister, in Hawaiian and Spanish guitar selections.

Miss Betty opened her program with the Porter "Prelude No. 1," a composition of great dignity and played with consistent good technique and expression. For her second number, she used the Schumann "Träumerei" and the Hartl arrangement of Schumann's "Joyful Peasant." The dreamy "Träumerei" was given in excellent tone and rhythm. Concluding, she played two Moon Mists, by Cooke and Justin, and the Frital "Etude Fantastique." All three were very well played and marked by considerably pleasing inflection.

The Foster sisters have been heard on many occasions in their pleasing guitar work and their two groups were charmingly played to add variety to the piano program.

Clarendon Pianist Gives Fine Recital In Methodist Church

A pleasing summer piano recital was given Tuesday evening in the Clarendon Methodist church, when Mrs. Clara Nielsen, talented pupil of Miss Lillian Larsen of the Warren Conservatory of Music, appeared before an appreciative audience.

She was assisted by Violet Anderson Borg, contralto, and James Shortt, violinist, both of Warren. Mrs. Nielsen, having studied but a short time, has made unusual progress in her piano work, showing intelligent understanding of the mood and technique of the classics. Her tone and interpretation of each number played marked her a pianist of artistic worth.

Mrs. Borg, well known contralto, sang in her usual pleasing manner. Her charming personality, coupled with a beautiful voice, assured her a pleasing reception.

James Shortt, well known soloist and member of the high school orchestra and string ensemble, played two numbers which were most enthusiastically received. His tone and artistic sensitivity made his selections most pleasing contributions to the program.

"In the case, operations on land and in the air continued on schedule yesterday. After decisions fell in our favor in numerous border battles successes in operations of great dimensions are beginning to show themselves."

DNE, official German news agency, said 15 Soviet transport trains, loaded with troops, trucks and other material, were discovered bombed out of existence at an undisclosed railroad station yesterday.

Bombs rained down so destructively that not one of the trains remained on the track, the agency said, and Russian soldiers fleeing from them were hurled through the air by the explosions.

The coaches were blown up and burned, the agency said, and German air scouts later established that nothing was left but "a mass of coaches, rails, trucks and material."

Despite considerable resistance at some points, panzer columns have driven surprisingly deep into Soviet territory, "scoring victories which may prove a decisive factor in determining further developments in the campaign," said the authoritative news commentary, Dienst Aus Deutschland.

Dienst Aus Deutschland said success had perched on the Nazi battle flags from the opening day of the campaign last Sunday and declared tactical surprises had succeeded everywhere as planned.

German losses thus far were described as extraordinarily small.

Conclusions drawn from press reports made it appear the heaviest blows were being rained upon the Red army on the southern and

Following its usual tactics, the air force apparently was attempting to cripple the Russians by smashing at rail junctions, fuel depots and airfields.

None of the press reports, however, made any reference to the use of parachute troops which played such an important part in the campaigns in the Netherlands and Crete. There was no mention, either, of any parachute activity by the Russians, who originated this phase of modern war.

America's Card Authority

Each year the American Contract Bridge League and its units assume the task of raising funds for humanitarian causes. These are known as the "Have-a-Heart-Take-a-Hand" activities of the league. Many local units have their own favorite "Have-a-Heart-Take-a-Hand" movement. One of the most interesting is teaching the blind how to play bridge.

Mrs. Elizabeth Banfield of New York has done a splendid job with her classes. Mrs. James B. Skuse and Mrs. Russell J. Baldwin have accomplished a great deal in Florida.

In Florida last winter, I played in a duplicate tournament with J. Patrick Dunne, former president of the Miami Bridge League. Pat is totally blind, but we won top score.

Pat has many championships to his credit. Here is an interesting hand he bid and played recently in New York. He held the South cards.

After taking the first trick Dunne led his ruffing heart. East won and returned a diamond. Dunne stepped in with the king, then led the eight of spades and won with the queen. North led a heart for South to ruff high, then the six of spades was led to the seven in dummy, giving entry for another heart lead and ruff.

The precious deuce of trumps gave a third entry, and the third heart ruff cleared the jack. The ace of diamonds then gave entry to cash this long heart for the discard of Dunne's losing diamond.

You'll love Orange Coconut Cookies made this Spry FULL FLAVOR way

Grated orange and lemon rind give delicious tangy zest to these crisp, tender cookies. But don't risk ordinary shortcomings that may "smother" flavor. Make them with pure Spry, the flavor sweet! Use Spry for all baking and frying and taste the difference. Get Spry now!

Orange Coconut Cookies
1 cup Spry 1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon 2 eggs, well salt
2 teaspoons 2 1/2 cups sifted orange rind 1 cup
1 teaspoon shredded lemon rind coconut
chopped
Combine Spry, salt and grated fruit rinds. Add sugar, then beaten eggs, and beat thoroughly. Add 1/2 of flour, then coconut, then remaining flour, mixing well. Drop from teaspoon on Sprycoted baking sheets. (Or press through pastry bag.) Let stand a few minutes, then flatten cookies by stamping with a glass covered with a damp cloth. Bake in preheated hot oven (375° F.) 8 to 10 minutes, or until delicately browned. Makes 4 1/2 dozen.

AUXILIARY HAS PICNIC MEETING AT YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville, June 25—The American Legion Auxiliary held a picnic meeting Tuesday evening on Island Park with Miss Augusta Johnson and Mrs. Ora Schnell as hostesses.

At the business session, it was voted to make a gift for recreational equipment in Pennsylvania Veterans Hospital.

Members of the Auxiliary are planning to attend the Inter-Council at Sheffield Saturday, the 28th.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck on the Allegheny river between Warren and Kinzua.

An invitation was received and accepted from Mrs. Ralph Ludwig, inviting the Auxiliary to meet at their home near Youngsville in August.

Miss Helen Vaughan and Mrs.

Jacobson, of Warren, left Youngsville Tuesday morning for Minnesota. They were driving the entire trip. Miss Vaughan, who is a former Youngsville high school teacher and more recently teacher of physical training in Warren High School, is going to Rochester, Minn., where she will take a special course in her chosen field at the Mayo Clinic.

Mrs. Jacobson is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

SHOWER PARTY

Miss Helen Vaughan was the honor guest Friday evening at a party held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Knapp. The party was a farewell surprise and Miss Vaughan was showered with personal gifts. Games of various kinds were enjoyed. Luncheon was served on an attractively arranged buffet table with favors in the form of miniature health purses. Guests were present from Warren and Lander as well as Youngsville.

AUXILIARY WILL HOLD MEETING AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, June 25—The American Legion Auxiliary of Sheffield will be hostess Saturday this week at a meeting of the Inter-County Council to be held in the Sheffield Methodist church. Mrs. Russell Johnson, Sheffield, president of the council, will preside.

More than 100 delegates from Auxiliary organizations of the five counties comprising the council—McKean, Forest, Cameron, Elk and Warren—are expected to attend the event, in addition to most of the members of the hostess organization.

The meeting originally scheduled to be held in the local American Legion Home, but transferred to the church so as not to conflict with another event slated to be held at the Home the same day, will convene in the afternoon, immediately following a luncheon which will be served at the church at 1 p. m. for the delegates and their guests. The luncheon will be served by a group of ladies of the church.

Principal business of the session will be the election of officers. The committee in charge has announced.

Local Auxiliary members are advised that 6 o'clock Friday evening is the deadline for making reservations for the luncheon. Mrs. Marie Christian is in charge.

ROTARY MEETING

Harold J. Fishbein, Kane business man, was the guest speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the local Rotary Club which was held yesterday noon in the American Legion Home. His talk, liberally interspersed with humor, was a review of world conditions.

Other guests present in addition to Mr. Fishbein, included William Currit, federal forestry service official, and Lagan Peterson, member of the Pennsylvania Bottle Company office force.

The directors of the club met following the luncheon and elected Dr. J. A. Allen treasurer. He succeeds Chris Yutzy, who resigned recently when he accepted a sales job which will keep him away from town much of the time.

The club will meet in the Legion Home again next Tuesday.

BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haight and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Freeborn were guests of relatives in Buffalo on Sunday.

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hedges and daughter, Carol Jean, of Seymour, Ind., are spending the week visiting Mrs. Hedges' mother, Mrs. Klingensmith.

Mrs. Mort Camp's group of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held a tea at the home of Mrs. Maude Chamberlain yesterday afternoon. The event, one of a series the society is currently promoting, was generously patronized.

Warren Voiture, 40, of 8, of which organization many local Legionnaires are members, will hold a "wreck" in the local Legion Home Saturday night. The event will begin with a dinner, which will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

A public card party will be held in St. Anthony hall Thursday evening. Both five hundred and bridge will be played, with prizes to be awarded.

Friendship Sunday School Reorganized With Many Present

On June 22 a meeting of the Friendship Union Sunday school was held in the Friendship schoolhouse in Elk township. Meetings of this formerly active little Sunday school were discontinued during the winter and spring months on account of bad roads and weather conditions but all responded to the call for reorganization with a good attendance.

The Sunday school missionary, Rev. B. F. Armstrong, presided and Mrs. Armstrong was pianist. Opening prayer by Rev. Armstrong was followed by reading of the 116th Psalm. After singing a hymn and several spirited choruses, the business session opened and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Superintendent, Mrs. C. C. Jury; assistant, William Tremain; pianist, Ethel Tremain; secretary, Mary Ellen Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Lida Lounsbury; teacher of adult class, Mrs. Mabel Brainard; assistant, Mrs. C. C. Jury; teacher for intermediate class, Mrs. Ethel Tremain; assistant, Fred Jury; teacher of primary class, Clyde Jury; group commissioners, Mrs. C. C. Jury and Mrs. Lida Lounsbury.

Beginning with the first Sunday of the new quarter, July 6, the school will meet regularly every Sunday morning at 10, DST. Visitors are cordially welcomed.

Angel Food Cake
Custard Cream

Oven-Fried Chicken
2 fryers (about 3 lbs. each)
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup water
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup fat (lard or butter)
1/2 cup boiling water

Wash and cut fryers into serving pieces. Chill until time to prepare. Coat with flour and seasonings shaken together in paper sack. (Add two pieces of chicken at a time to coat.) Heat fat in frying pan (or two pans will save time). Add chicken and brown well. Transfer to baking pan (shallow kind). Pour in water and cover tightly. Bake an hour in moderate oven (350).

Strawberry Pie Louisiana
1 quart firm ripe berries (select ones)
1/2 cup water
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt (optional)

Wash, drain and hull berries. Reserve a cupful and mash rest. Add water, sugar blended with cornstarch, salt and juice to mashed berries. Slowly bring to boil and boil gently two minutes. Stir constantly. Cook ten minutes in double boiler. Add butter and cool. Pour over rest of berries arranged in crust. Chill. Spread with cream and serve.

Worry of
FALSE TEETH
Slipping or Irritating

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug store. (adv.)

THE UNITED SERVICE ORGANIZATION

The local committee of the United Service Organizations today answers some of the questions which citizens may be expected to ask about the organization which through six national agencies, will staff and operate the centers being built for service men and defense workers in communities near bases and defense areas throughout the nation.

The U. S. O. welcomes all inquiries and will gladly answer them through the columns of the Times-Mirror.

Isn't the U. S. O. duplicating the work of government activities? No. The army and navy can only be responsible for activities within their own military reservations. Isn't that activity sufficient? No. It has been found that young men when off duty want to leave the government reservations and mingle with civilian life. There is also a national problem arising from the migration of thousands of families in connection with defense industries.

Why can't they be left to their own devices? The areas surrounding the bases are inadequate in their resources, have no proper recreation facilities in many cases and some are crowded with those who seek to exploit service men commercially and viciously.

Where will the U. S. O. get its funds? America's private citizens are and always have been quick to realize their debt to those who have left their homes to defend them, if necessary. Through private subscription, the U. S. O. expects to provide decent and pleasant surroundings for these service men and defense workers in leisure hours.

Will this duplicate the regular services of the agencies which may have local units in the camps? No. These units will work as separate units, but will endeavor to coordinate their work with the U. S. O. clubs.

How can I help? By volunteering for service in the Warren county campaign, by contributions and by studying the purposes of the U. S. O. and explaining them to your friends, neighbors and fellow workers.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—A bunch of old movie cowhands were lamenting the passing of the old-time cowboy stars. Talkies had driven them from the picture ranges to the two-day stage or to the circus. Tom Mix was gone, old Bill Hart was in retirement on his ranch, and Harry Carey—"Humph!" cut in oldtimer Otto Myers. "That guy Carey's got a rubber backside. He goes down but he bounces."

Otto was a prophet. That guy Carey, even then, was banished from the movie plains, following a circus through the middle west. But he bounced. The other day, celebrating his 33rd year in the movies, they threw a party for Harry and his latest picture, "Shepherd of the Hills."

The party was at Harry's ranch near Saugus, 40 miles from Hollywood.

It's a real ranch, not one of these Hollywood half-acres with an orange tree and a station wagon.

The Careys—she was Olive Golden of the films before Harry fished her out of a location river and married her—homesteaded the place some 25 years ago. Ten years ago they built their comfortable, authentic California adobe house. That was three years after the big dam broke and washed them out, $250,000 worth.

They're a hearty clan, these Careys. Harry, getting on past 60, is sturdy and straight, blue eyes keen in genial weather-beaten face. No fancy cowboy rig—just boots, trousers, a flannel shirt. Ollie is still slim and pretty, but no fussing about her looks. The girl Ellen (Cappy, they call her) is 17, a slim range princess who can jitterbug, ride bareback, or operate on a horse with equal expertness. The boy, Dobie, is 20, a horseman, a cowhand, a singer. Both the youngsters want to act. They got their start when Harry "supported" them in "Ah, Wilderness!" last year in the east.

The Careys have no butler, no upstairs maid, not even an upstairs. Three Navajo boys help Harry on the ranch; two Navajo girls help on the cooking and housework.

"I've been out of work a lot," said Harry, of those 33 years since H. B. Walthall, a respectable stage actor like himself, introduced him to the movies at old Biograph.

Admiral Francois Darian, of France, holds the British Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian order.

KERCHOO!

Now—it's easy to get whiter washes without sneezing spells

The first thing you'll notice about the New Rinso when you try it is that there's no cloud of sneezy "soap-dust" flying around. But that's not all! You'll be thrilled when you see how quickly the New Rinso dissolves... even in hardest water; how it gives active suds that loosen dirt with little or no rubbing. In tub or washer, the New Rinso washes clothes shades whiter than old-type soaps. And Rinso is safe for washable colors. No wonder the makers of 33 washers endorse it. Rinso costs only 1¢ a day for dishes. And it's so kind to hands.

I CONTAIN A MARVELOUS NEW "SUDS-BOOSTER" THAT MAKES ME GO SO MUCH FARTHER THAN THE OLD RINSO—IT'S LIKE GETTING FREE SOAP EVERY 5TH WASHDAY

New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso is the only soap of its type that's 98% free of "soap-dust"

Sugar Grove, June 20—Miss Lois Bright and Eugene Amsler, both of Knox, were married at the Sugar Grove Methodist church, Wednesday, June 18, at ten o'clock, with Rev. C. W. McCaskey, of Palmyra, N. Y., performing the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Betty Gross, of Knox; Miss LaVone

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

New York Yankees Take Command In A. L. Pennant Race

Tribe Falls Out Of First Place; Cards Whip Boston Braves

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the first time since the season was in its infancy the New York Yankees are in first place in the American League today and now the pressure is on the Cleveland Indians.

Critics of Cleveland always have contended the Indians were from runners who would take up if the going got tough.

The Yankees captured the lead yesterday by dumping the St. Louis Browns 7-5 while the St. place Boston Red Sox landed the Tribe 7-2.

Joe DiMaggio led the homing in New York with a two-run homer that extended his hitting streak to 37 games, tied with the record, and made 29 consecutive contests in which one or more of the Yankees hit home runs. It was the Yankees' 15th triumph in 16 games.

In Boston the Indians were sent back on their heels by old Lefty Grove, who pitched seven and a half for the 26th victory of his long and illustrious career. The Indians rapped a two-run homer in the fourth and his mates got five runs in the seventh.

The best out-of-pitching show of the season to date was staged at Washington yesterday when John R. Johnson, who had struggled for 12 consecutive innings before the White Sox dented the Senators 2-0 in the 13th.

Until the 13th inning of the White Sox game, Ted Williams had made a hit in each of the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, New York Yankees Take Command In A. L. Pennant Race

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the first time since the season was in first place in the American League today and now the pressure is on the Cleveland Indians.

Critics of Cleveland always have contended the Indians were front runners who would fold up if the going got tough.

The Yanks captured the lead yesterday by jumping the St. Louis Browns 7-5 while the third place Boston Red Sox raised the Tribe 7-2.

Joe DiMaggio led the bombing in New York with a two-run homer that extended his hitting streak to 37 games, four short of the record, and made 20 consecutive contests in which he hit home runs.

It was the Yanks' 13th triumph in 16 games.

In Boston the Indians were set back on their heels by old Lefty Grove, who pitched seven-hit ball for the 28th victory of his long and illustrious career. Ted Williams rapped a two-run homer in the fourth and his mates put together a flock of doubles for five runs in the seventh.

The best one-game pitching show of the season, however, was staged at Washington yesterday when John Rigney and Sid Hudson struggled for 12 scoreless innings before the White Sox downed the Senators 2-0 in the 13th.

Until the 13th none of the White Sox except Taft Hight had made a hit. Then in the 13th Hudson gave a single, a double and two walks to force in a run and the Sox sprung the first triple steal of the year for their triple tally. Rigney kept six safeties scattered.

The Philadelphia Athletics nosed out the Detroit Tigers 5-4 with a triple by Al Brancato scoring two runs and deciding the game in the fourth frame.

In the National League the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers both won, preserving the half game margin between them.

The Dodgers squeezed past the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 with two runs in the eighth inning on a single and two doubles. It was a see-saw affair distinguished chiefly for the fact that Manager Leo Durocher of the Dodgers, Manager Frank Frisch of the Pirates and Coach Mike Kelly of the same club all were banished for arguments with umpires each in a separate dispute and in different innings.

The New York Giants cleaned up on the Chicago Cubs 4-1 while Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from the Phillies 8-3 and 5-1. Elmer Riddle kept 11 hits spaced effectively in the first game for his seventh victory without defeat. Monte Pearson, former American League ace, showed his almost forgotten self in the night cap with five-hit hurling for his first win in the senior circuit.

POUGHKEEPSIE Jungle Giants Play IS WON EASILY At Wilder Field In BY WASHINGTON Fracas Under Lights

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26—(P)—It probably comes as no surprise to you to learn that, for competitive thrills, the annual intercollegiate regatta packs little punch these days.

It's getting so you know before-hand it'll be either Washington or California in a breeze. And when the Huskies of Washington rowed off and hid from the others along about dusk last evening, it was about as astonishing as finding a knife, fork and spoon at your place when you sit down to dinner.

With California winning the junior varsity affair this year, the East's only consolation was Cornell's triumph in the freshman two miles. The Huskies and the Bears didn't bring freshmen boatloads with them.

Back of the two far western craft in the varsity race came, in order, Cornell, Syracuse, Princeton, Wisconsin, Rutgers, Massachusetts, Tech, and hard luck Columbia, whose No. 2 man, Gene Remmer, suffered a cramp at about the half way mark.

Tonight's the night! At nine o'clock this evening fans of this section will get an opportunity to witness their first night game of the year, their first comic baseball program, and doubtless a good ball game, when the African Jungle Giants square off against the National Forge at Wilder Field, Irvine.

The lights will be brought by the Giants; they have a portable Monarch system which is claimed to be the brightest lighting portable system made today.

Interest in the contest is running high, and it is expected that the largest crowd of the season will be at Wilder Field to witness this evening's skirmish.

Tentative lineups were announced today, and are as follows:

African Jungle Giants Tago 3b; Bobo, ss; Jayos, rf; Jera, lf; Pozo, cf; Tor, 2b; Pena, 1b; Jara, c; and probably Reynolds will be the starting pitcher. That will leave Johnson, Nebo, Pudo, Zeno, and Adams in the hurling department, and Mabo, both catcher and pitcher, as relief material.

National Forge—Creola, rf; Burns, lf; B. Wolfe, cf; Rosequist, c; Morrison, ss; Petrowski, 3b; Hajnik, 1b; Solok, 2b; and possibly Kulick or Caffrey will draw the starting assignment on the knoll.

The management once again urged that those planning to see tonight's ball game prepare to be at Wilder Field early, in order to assure themselves good seats.

Sports Round-up

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

(Pitch-Hitting for Eddie Rietz)

New York, June 26—Poughkeepsie pickups: The talk along rowing from all week has been that Washington's Al Ulbricksen will get a bid from Yale to take Ed Leader's place. . . . The Eli alumni think something must be done about Harvard's string of victories and the Crimson won't go to Poughkeepsie to let Ulbricksen do it with his Huskies. . . . Like Washington, George Pocock couldn't lose yesterday. He built all the boats in the race. . . . Skip Walz, Wisconsin's coach and one of the most enthusiastic rowing men on the river, though he never tugged an oar in college, is trying to persuade one of the eastern crews to visit Madison next spring and help him sell rowing to other big ten schools.

One Minute Interview

Ty Cobb: "I like to watch baseball but I haven't seen a game yet this year. Maybe it's because the mistakes I see on the field drive me wild. Maybe it's because I hate the change that's come over the game. When the value of one run was destroyed, a big kick was taken out of the game for me."

Fall Guys

Summer's only a few days old, but the pro football clubs already are bombarding us with announcements of players being signed up. . . . Portland, Ore., fans are up in arms over the New Eldon Jenne test that requires a physical education degree for high school coaches. They point out that none of the Coast Conference grid coaches could hold jobs in Portland high schools and neither could such far country coaches as Knute Rockne or Pop Warner. . . . Among those slated to go is Wade Williams, who's considered tops among school baseball tutors. . . . Susquehanna U. won't have just one football captain this year, but four. . . . Navy will get a year of football out of Fred Van't Hull, Minnesota tackle, who just got his Annapolis appointment. . . . Auburn has enough football players studying in its summer school to make up a full football team. . . . Who called it soft, though? . . . When Bill Hartman, Georgia backfield coach, and his prize pupil, Frank Sinkwich, dropped in the other day, all they'd talk about was law, because Frank is getting ready to enter law school in the fall. . . . Coast scribbles claim the conference coaches ought to kick back part of their salaries now, since the strictly amateur code lets them loaf all summer instead of scouting for talent.

SPORT SCATTERINGS

In our little play upon the national pastime and its "distant" relationship to Russell Field, in Tuesday night's issue, we put it mildly in stating that this community's one and only athletic field upon which it seems anyone can see it's worthwhile to make improvements, is in sore need of a face-lifting job. What really ought to be done, as we discovered upon visiting the layout yesterday, is a complete resurfacing job. And that isn't just to get it in shape for baseball. The field won't even be fit for football, high school or professional, unless something is done, but quickly, to improve the surface. It may sound like one for Ripley, but it's the nearest we've ever come to seeing hay growing from a concrete base. And that ground up their is really hard! If you don't believe us, make it a point to visit Russell Field yourself and satisfy your doubt. It's a far cry from the North Warren athletic diamond, which is soft, and safe for any kind of athletics. RUSSELL FIELD IS IN BAD SHAPE, and there's no way of sidestepping the issue.

However, it wouldn't take too much time or work to change it back into a decent place for local sports. The fence project is no longer the worry, but the field itself is. And certainly there must be enough dyed-in-the-wool sports fans in Warren to see that something is done about it. Here it is, nearly July. Three more months, two until football practice starts, is all the time that's left to put a new finish on what can be a swell field. So let's get at it. We're not blaming anyone because of the shape the park is in. The main reason is because there has been no activity on it all summer long. Something must be done, and we're confident that something will be done. We, ourselves, promise personal assistance to what ever committee or organization takes over the task. Because you can't have there isn't a more ardent lover of good local sports than you'll find right on this desk.

Remember "Boots" Poffenberger, the leather-lunged baron of baseball? Well, it looks as though it will be quite a spell before "Boots" gets back in the major leagues. Tuesday night he drew a suspension for ninety days (the rest of the season) for throwing a ball at, and hitting Umpire Ed Hoffman in the Southern Association when an argument, arose in the Nashville-New Orleans game. New Orleans won the contest 9 to 2, and the umpire won the decision. Poffenberger was pitching for Nashville.

Chasers: . . . Johnny Hopp is convinced that he must curb his temper a little better. Angry when Carl Hubbell fanned him the other day, he threw his bat and it came within six inches of making Sam Breadon, club president, the victim of circumstances, or sumptin'. So the Cardinal player has decided the safest way . . . Must be Babe Dahlgren likes being a little "bear" . . . his first week with the Cubs, he hit four home runs. . . . Henry Prusoff, ranked eighth in the nation's singles tennis ratings, suffered a broken back several years ago, but he's o. k. today, and a plenty tough customer on any court. . . . Star Journal: "In many respects Joe Louis is like the Minnesota Northwestern, for example, might beat the Gophers this Saturday, but next Saturday they couldn't beat Podunk College. The reason is that the Maize and Gold boys took so much out of them they couldn't move." EARL MEADOWS WILL TRY FOR VAULT RECORD

Philadelphia, June 26—(P)—Earle Meadows, co-holder of the world pole vault record, admires rival Cornelius Warmerdam's style so much he's copying it in hopes of beating the coast sensation in the A. A. U. National Championships here Saturday and Sunday.

Meadows, whose 1936 world mark of 14 feet 11 inches has been bettered unofficially several times by Warmerdam, has lengthened his run by 35 feet in an effort to improve his vaulting.

"The 35 extra feet, I think, will do the trick," said the former Southern California star in the midst of practice jumps at Franklin Field. "It gives me a run of 135 feet and I find the pull is less severe."

"You know, that's how Warmerdam does it. He's fast on the runway and his body swings perfectly. He uses little muscular effort. He's got timing down perfectly—and, boy, how I admire him for it."

Meadows thinks he'll hit the 15-foot mark here. He'll have to do that and possibly more to beat Warmerdam, the A. A. U. defending champion who has leaped 15 feet 5 inches.

The Meadows-Warmerdam duel is expected to rank with such other A. A. U. highlights as the Walter Mehl-Leslie MacMillan 1,500-meter run, the Harold Davis-Barney Ewell clash in the sprints and the 10,000-meter grind between Greg Rice and Don Lash.

HEART BREAK HONEYMOON

by Watkins & Wright

Ty. J. American Girls, Both Lovely, Battle For The Love Of Henry Pell

Chapter One Honeymoon Begins

THE door of Drawing Room A closed softly. The Silver Comet, the railroad's crack, streamlined express train sped on into the night.

And Henry and Luella were alone.

All the thrill and excitement of a church wedding in a not so large town was over. The music, the fragrance, the color, the flowers, the cheesecloth tacked down over the red velvet carpet, and Miss Winnie Williamson singing "Oh, Promise Me," were all things of the past.

Luella was Henry's. Henry was Luella's. Until death did them part.

"Gosh, but you're beautiful, Mrs. Pell," said Henry.

"Thank you, sir," said Luella. "You're not half bad yourself. You must have an awful time convincing people that you're not Robert Taylor."

"No need laying it on that thick, my darling," Henry grinned as he shook rice from his coat collar. "All set to take the bitter with the better, as Jane Ace would put it," he asked.

"Yes, all set," said Luella. "But still a bit dazed over you marrying me instead of a glamour girl like Marie."

"That," said Henry, "is a heck of a thing to say. And on your honeymoon, too!"

"I suppose it is," said Luella thoughtfully. She stood looking at her very new husband, admiring him, feeling all choked up inside, as she realized that he now belonged to her and to her alone.

"Oh, Henry, dearest, I do love you. It's simply wonderful being married to you."

"I bet you say that all your husbands!" Henry laughed. He held out his arm. "Come here, Mrs. Henry Randolph Pell. Don't be shy—no one's looking."

"Precious idiot!" Luella said.

She went to Henry, snuggled close, held him tightly against her. What a blessed, blessed relief not to be afraid any more. Gone was the uncertainty, the fear that maybe Henry didn't love her after all. Didn't want her for his wife. No more terrible nights of lying awake, wondering if in the end Marie would become Mrs. Henry Randolph Pell.

No, it was all settled now. Henry had married her, Luella. Mrs. Brown, the girl with the old-fashioned name and the old-fashioned ideas about marriage, and not Marie Mason, the girl who was going places in the world of the radio.

"How about a kiss?" said Henry. He put his finger under Luella's chin and lifted her face. "What's the idea, hiding down there among my lapels?"

Luella closed her eyes and held her breath. She always did this when Henry kissed her.

"Mine forever and forever," said Henry.

"Yours in this world," said Luella, "and in all the worlds to come."

They stood silent for a time, very close, very much in love. And then a voice outside brought them back to realization of where they really were—in a Pullman car speeding north.

"Las' call for dinnah!" said the voice. "Las' call for dinnah! . . . Dinin' car in the rear."

Henry held Luella off a ways, smiled down into the misty grayness of her eyes.

Faraway Reno

"HOW about eating?" he said. "Maybe I'm being unromantic or something to think of food at a time like this, but, honestly, honey, I'm starved."

"So am I," said Luella.

"Gosh, sweetness," said Henry. "You're a girl after my own heart! You can be romantic, and look romantic—and yet you still enjoy eating."

"I adore eating in a diner," said Luella. "It makes me feel so luxurious and important."

"Angel!"

"And speaking of eating," Luella went on, "certainly didn't have time for much at the reception. You know, getting out of my veil and wedding gown, and into this smart-looking traveling ensemble." She took a step backward, ran her slender hands down her hips and thighs. "It is a smart ensemble, Mr. Pell, just in case you didn't know."

"Luella Brown Pell, you'd look grand to me in sack-cloth and ashes," said Henry. "Only don't take me too literally and start wearing 'em. We've got things to live up to when we reach our destination, so my wife must stay smart-looking."

He flicked a grain of rice from Luella's red-gold hair. "Now," he said, "you look like a very adorable young woman who's gotten used to being married and likes it."

"I do like being married," said Luella. "But I don't want to look too much that way." She glanced into a mirror. "I don't, do I?"

"Oh, no! Not more than a couple of husbands ditched out in Reno," Henry said. Then when he saw Luella shudder, he asked, "Did I say something I hadn't oughter?"

"No, Henry. . . . Only—well—I just don't like even to think of Reno. I never did think divorce was a joking matter."

"You silly, serious kid!" said Henry, mixing his adjectives. "There's one thing we can know—you and I—and that's this: divorce will always be a joke, so far as we're concerned. And as for Reno—well, honey, that's as remote as—as—the pot of gold at the rainbow's end."

Luella looked up at him.

"You're sure of that," she said.

"Of course I am!" Henry said with emphasis. "You're an old-fashioned girl, especially where marrying comes in, and I know darn well you'll not let me get away!" He chuckled. "Now, let's go eat. . . . I don't look too groomish, do I?"

"No, darling. You look like a settled married man. Only there is a touch of pleased expression on that handsome mug of yours."

"And why shouldn't there be?" Henry retorted. "Didn't I marry myself the loveliest girl in my old hometown? And didn't I—"

"No, you didn't," said Luella. "Marie was the loveliest girl in your old hometown. Don't you remember—the voting in high school, and how Marie got almost twice as many votes as any other girl, and how she—"

"Nonsense!" said Henry. "And don't interrupt! I repeat: didn't I marry myself the loveliest girl in my old hometown, and am I not speeding toward New York to take over a swell job? Gosh, Luella, I've got a right to look pleased. I feel downright smug."

Luella slipped her hand into his.

"Anyway, Henry Pell," she said, "you make me feel terribly happy—talking like that."

"Making you happy," said Henry. "Is my lifework from now on."

They went out of the drawing room and down through the car. A man eyed them over the top of a newspaper. "They look like something right out of Hollywood," he thought, losing interest entirely in the war news he had been reading.

"They're bride and groom," said another man. "I saw them get on at a little jerk-water town back in North Carolina."

He shrugged wearily. "Some men have all the luck."

"Well, you had a honeymoon, didn't you?" said the flashily

The Pells were unconscious of the impression they made.

dressed woman who shared the Pullman section with him.

"Yep! Sure I did—such as it was. Only the woman I married had more love for my cash than for me."

"Really?" The woman laughed mirthlessly. "Well, you certainly didn't think I was marrying you for your looks, did you?"

An elderly woman looked up from her knitting as Henry and Luella passed, leaving some stray grains of rice behind them. "What lovely children a couple like that will have," she sighed. And her eyes filled with tears as she thought of the children she had dreamed about the boy and the girl who had never been born.

While Luella and Henry, all unconscious of the various impressions they were making, went on toward the diner.

About Marie

THEY reached it at last, and were given a table for two. As they sat down, Luella again thought of Marie Mason.

She visualized Marie sitting as she now sat, facing Henry Pell. For Marie had sat like that once upon a time.

It was when she was going up to New York to try for a radio engagement, and when Henry had been galled to New York for an important interview. The two of them had gone directly to the diner upon boarding the train. Luella could see them, as she stood upon the lonely station platform watching the long line of Pullman cars slide past.

And no one would ever know the ache that had been in her heart on that unforgettable evening. Marie, looking so radiant, and Henry, looking so proud. "Why, they are just like a honeymoon couple!" she had thought. Two successful people going out into the world together, one having been a hit over a small broadcast, and the other an impression on the head office way up in Manhattan.

And she, who had never done anything but keep house for an unloving aunt, and love Henry Randolph Pell with all her passionate nature, was left behind. It had been her last feeling—she had experienced—the fear that had gripped her.

Suppose Henry didn't come back. . . . Suppose he decided that it was Marie whom he loved after all. . . . Suppose that once he and Marie were together in New York, Henry would begin to feel that Marie was the girl who was best suited to become the wife of an up-and-coming business man.

It all came back to Luella now, as she sat in the diner watching Henry order their dinner.

But Henry had come back. He had taken her hungrily into his arms, and told her that he felt confident he would soon be called to fill an important vacancy in the New York office. Eager. Excited. Holding her close. Laying his warm cheek against hers. Tenderly caressing her hair.

"And when they do send for me," he had gone on, "we'll make the trip up a combination honeymoon and business journey. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Randolph Pell going out into the big and busy world to make names for themselves!"

"But—how about Marie?" she had asked. "I mean, how did she make out?"

"Splendidly!" Henry had replied. "I stayed over a few days longer than I'd planned so's to hear about her audition. One of the radio men said she could put more feeling into a song than anyone he'd ever heard. All that left for Marie to do now is get a sponsor and put her name on the dotted line. And then just watch her go."

Luella had watched her go.

PROGRESS REPORTED AT PIPER FACTORY

Lock Haven June 26.—(P)—With an "encouraging outlook" reported by mediators, officials of Piper Aircraft Corporation and an AFL machinists union scheduled another conference today in an effort to end a ten-day strike that has halted the company's production of small training planes.

Both Frank Walsh of the U. S. conciliation service and State Mediator Patrick Ramsey conferred with management and union representatives yesterday, but declined to reveal the course of the discussions other than to declare "progress has been made."

TRUCK DRIVERS TURN DOWN NEW PROPOSALS

Pittsburgh, June 26.—(P)—A strike of 1,700 truck drivers which has curtailed motor freight transportation between Pittsburgh and other eastern industrial cities, today entered its 26th day with the one remaining issue—wages—still stalemated and with the National Defense Mediation Board expected to take the next step.

Efforts of federal and state labor mediators, Mayor Cornelius D. Scully and the Chamber of Commerce to effect a settlement struck a snag last night when the AFL Teamsters Union rejected a wage compromise offer.

A spokesman for the union said the strikers voted to stay out indefinitely unless they receive a 10-cents-an-hour increase. They turned down the offer of 179 Pittsburgh trucking companies for a six-cent increase for drivers earning 85 cents an hour.

In Chicago three afternoon newspapers, the Daily Times, the Daily News and the Herald-American, encountered labor difficulties in their composing rooms.

The work stoppage began yesterday. Spokesmen for the newspapers said they had set up emergency arrangements which would enable them to continue publication.

A spokesman for the local Typographical Union said the stoppages were not authorized, but that some of the members "took things into their own hands" during negotiations for a new contract to replace one which expired June 12.

The men want increases of $5 a week over the present basic rates of $58 for day employees and $62 for men on the night shift. The International Typographical Union's executive board ordered the men to return to work or face expulsion.

The night raiders also were said to have sunk a 1,500-ton merchant vessel off Great Yarmouth.

The Germans acknowledged that British air raiders had again attacked some place in western Germany during the night, causing some damage and casualties, but they said no military targets were hit.

SAW MILL FIRE WEDNESDAY EVE CAUSES DAMAGE

Youngsville, June 26.—Youngsville volunteer fire company received a call Wednesday evening about ten o'clock to the Blue Eye saw mill located between Pittsfield and Garland, near the new road.

The fire started over the boiler, probably in the conveyance which carries sawdust to be burned, and threatened the entire saw mill and piled lumber. However, by putting on two streams of water from the Youngsville fire pumper the damage area was confined to a comparatively small section of the mill.

The local firemen were busy for hours holding the fire in check until finally extinguished. Marie Welch acted as fire chief in the absence of Fire Chief Johnson, who was away at the time the fire started.

As the fire was in the vicinity of the boiler and other expensive machinery, the damage may be more than at first apparent, but it was confined to only a small part of the large mill.

Miss Jermaine Mourer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mourer, is very ill at the Warren Hospital, where she was taken this week for treatment.

RECITAL

Miss Lillian Swanson will present her pupils in a piano recital Monday evening, June 30, at eight o'clock in the Youngsville high school auditorium. Certificates will be presented to those who have successfully passed their examinations at the Warren Conservatory of Music. The public is invited most cordially. There will be no admission.

Border Town Recaptured In Counter-Attack

On the situation at the extreme southern end of the battle front, where the Nazis apparently were seeking to smash into the Ukraine—rich oil and wheat lands which the Germans coveted—the High Command said:

"In the Bessarabian sector of the front, Red Army troops firmly held positions on the eastern bank of the Prut river, successfully repulsing numerous enemy attempts to force the river."

"In the area of Skuleni, the enemy attempted to advance, but suffered heavy defeat and his remnants are being pressed beyond the Prut river. German prisoners, Rumanians, were taken prisoner."

The High Command spoke cryptically of the operations around Vilna and Osmiana, saying only that:

"In the course of fighting separate groups of enemy tanks succeeded in breaking through in the area of Vilna and Osmiana. Our land troops, by stubborn resistance and active operations, cut off enemy infantry units in these directions from their main troops."

The High Command said that 76 hostile planes were shot down in yesterday's air fighting, in which the Russians attacked objectives ranging from Finland in the far north to the German Black Sea naval base of Constanta in Rumania. The Russians said they lost only 17 planes in these engagements.

Thus, in four days the plane score as reported by the Soviet stood at:

German losses: 457; Russian losses: 391.

German paratroopers were reported active, the High Command announcing that several had been captured by peasants.

Three-Year-Old Lost In Woods 28 Hours Safe

would be "all right after lots of rest." She had worn a light sweater, dress and shoes during her adventure.

Betty walked into the woods after playing with children Tuesday morning. A bloodhound and about 200 persons, including COC workers, firemen, state police, Boy Scouts and volunteers, joined the hunt for her yesterday. The father, a Pittsburgh trolley motorman, was among them.

TIMES TOPICS

OFFICES CLOSING

At the direction of Governor Arthur H. James all state offices in the capital and elsewhere are to close at noon tomorrow in respect to the late secretary of health, Dr. John J. Shaw.

SIGNS AMENDMENT

Governor James today signed an amendment of the Act of 1917, guaranteeing the state employment of state employees called into military service and allowing them half pay up to $2,000 a year during their terms with the armed forces.

JAMES SIGNS BILL

Governor James today signed into a law a bill providing for local referenda on Sunday movies at intervals of four instead of five years as established under previous law. Measure also provides for an election on a petition of 20 percent of the electorate, instead of 5 percent as prescribed under the suspended legislation, it was stated in an Associated Press dispatch.

Finland Proclaims A Defense Battle Against Russians

cast to his people tonight an announcement of a Finnish declaration of war on Soviet Russia.

The declaration of Finnish policy was made by Premier Juha Rangell at a secret night session of parliament, called after repeated Russian air assaults had killed scores of persons, wounded hundreds more and caused widespread property damage.

Rangell said the Soviet government had ignored requests for an explanation of these attacks, and that Finland thus had only one course to pursue. He obtained a unanimous vote of confidence.

The Russians did not confine their attacks to any particular area yesterday, ranging far and wide over the country on which they wrought havoc during the brief war of 1939-40.

This city has its sixth air raid alarm in a little more than 24 hours this morning. Other targets included Turku, Lappeenranta, Helsinki, Jyväskylä, a flying field at Malmi, Porvoo, Loviisa, Forsby and Pyteranti.

The naval guns on Hangö Peninsula, which the Russians obtained from Finland in their peace settlement little more than a year ago, also went into action, bombing adjacent Finnish territory at intervals for hours.

The communists made no mention of any contact between Finnish and Russian troops along the border, and it was presumed that hostilities thus far were confined to the air.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill restoring largely the scale of workmen's compensation benefits as prescribed in the act of 1937 which was ruled, in part, unconstitutional by the state supreme court.

The Senate decided to drop the administration's plan of extending civil service to the fish and game commission, the department of health, the state police and the welfare department.

Loss Of Ocean Raider Admitted

TRUCK DRIVERS TURN DOWN NEW PROPOSALS

Pittsburgh, June 26.—(P)—A strike of 1,700 truck drivers which has curtailed motor freight transportation between Pittsburgh and other eastern industrial cities, today entered its 26th day with the one remaining issue of wages. Efforts of federal and state labor mediators, Mayor Cornelius D. Scully and the Chamber of Commerce to effect a settlement struck a snag last night when the AFL Teamsters' Union rejected a wage compromise offer.
A union spokesman said the strikers voted to stay out indefinitely unless they receive a 10-cent-an-hour increase. They turned down the offer of 179 Pittsburgh trucking companies for a six-cent increase for drivers earning 85 cents an hour.

In Chicago three afternoon newspapers, the Daily Times, the Daily News and the Herald-American, encountered labor difficulties in their composing rooms. The work stoppage began yesterday. Spokesmen for the newspapers said they had set up emergency arrangements which would enable them to continue publication.
A spokesman for the local Typographical Union said the stoppages were not authorized, but that some of the members "took things into their own hands" during negotiations for a new contract to replace one which expired June 12. The men want increases of $5 a week over the present basic rates of $58 for day employees and $62 for men on the night shift. The International Typographical Union's executive board ordered the men to return to work or face expulsion.
The night raids on Germany were the 15th in as many nights, and the British Broadcasting Corporation declared that the RAF was just hitting its stride.
Berlin, June 26.—(P)—Port facilities at Southampton and vital objectives in the center of the city were bombed successfully by the Luftwaffe in attacks in England last night, Germans said today.
The night raiders also were said to have sunk a 1,500-ton merchant vessel off Great Yarmouth.
The Germans acknowledged that British air raiders had again attacked some place in western Germany during the night, causing some damage and casualties, but they said no military targets were hit.

ELECTED BOARD MEMBER
At the eleventh annual Western Pennsylvania Industrial Conference, held at Conneaut Lake Park on June 21 and 22, William B. Gaughn, of the Scrubbers-Wells Corporation, was elected a member of the board of Governors of the Western Pennsylvania Industrial Conference. Warren was represented at the conference by thirty-five foremen from local industries.

CHILD INJURED
Lorraine Hopkins, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hopkins, R. D. 1, Russell, is in the Warren General Hospital with a fractured shoulder and possible fractured ribs, sustained last evening when she was struck by a truck operated by her father. According to the hospital report, the youngster ran into the path of the truck as it was being backed into a driveway at the home. Her condition is good today.

PROBE WRECK
Officials of two railroads today continued an investigation into the recent collision of a Pennsylvania railroad freight with a New York Central train, which seriously injured a conductor and derailed five cars at Cooks Run, near Renovo, early yesterday. The conductor, A. W. Keller, 56, of Cherrytree, Pa., lost his left arm when the Pennsylvania train ploughed into the rear of his New York Central freight as it waited in a siding. Traffic was held up for some time and resulted in west-bound passenger train No. 561, due here at 8:02 a. m. yesterday, being delayed via Olean. Another minor wreck occurred in the Ridgway yards Tuesday night.
